Where Recovery Works!

Honoring Those Who Have Helped us Along the Way

Boley Centers celebrated the grand opening of Broadwater Place on Friday, October 30. This multifamily development provides 44 units of permanent supportive housing for individuals who have mental disabilities or were formerly chronically homeless. Working with the City of St. Petersburg, Boley Centers acquired the property in 2009. Over the course of the following six years, Broadwater Place was developed in four phases using eight different funding sources including the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development Section 811; Department of Children & Families' Office on Homelessness; Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta through Synovus Bank; Florida Housing Finance Corporation; City of St. Petersburg HOME funds; Bessie Boley Foundation; Boley Centers, Inc. and Pinellas Affordable Living, Inc.

Today there are a total of three buildings and each one has been named in honor of three former Board Members - Connie Clendening, Warren Bowman and Cindy McCormick. Celebrating with us at the grand opening event were Vito Sheeley, aide to U.S. Representative Kathy Castor; U.S. Representative David Jolly; St. Petersburg Mayor Rick Kriseman; St. Petersburg City Councilman Wengay Newton and Florida Department of Children & Families, Regional Substance Abuse & Mental Health Director April May.

Big Thanks to the Boley Angels!

Paul & Nora Pearson and Jim & Theresa Wittstruck organized a fantastic Low Country Shrimp Boil which took place on the front lawn at the Mary Koenig Center early in October. The main attraction of course was the fabulous feast of shrimp, corn and potatoes, but there were also plenty of appetizers, desserts and drinks to be had! Entertainment was provided by Rick Elkins and even inspired some dancing! Special thanks to Mike Veeder and Ray Scott for all of their hard work in setting up and tearing down the event, June Wedding for taking reservations and helping to set up at event as well as Paul Misiewicz of World Liquors for the generous donation of beer and wine.
